Design
à la carte

Intricate patterns
amuse the eye.

The power of repetition

The powerful cadence of lines and shapes create vibrant patterns that add another dimension to your design.

Break the pattern

Explore the possibilities of random forms and unexpected structures as they develop a unique underlying rhythm of their own.

Freedom of design

Trespa Meteon exterior panels let you develop harmonious patterns based on a single, artfully-selected shape.

Playfully break pattern rhythms to create complex counter-rhythms that surprise and delight.

Match the shapes

Rhythm of design

Forget ordinary. Bring your facade to life with the fascinating rhythms of shapes, lines and patterns to display an array of emotions: playful... conservative... aggressive... solemn. Colors slip from dark to light to dark as the sun plays across the facade's surface, highlighting a pattern here, a texture there, displaying sudden surprises and unexpected delight. By incorporating Trespa Meteon exterior panels into your design, by adding special joint elements and structures, you can design a facade that connects with people on an emotional level.

We call this process Trespa Perspectives. Trespa Perspectives isn't a product. It's a source of inspiration for architects and designers, a new way of looking at buildings. The rhythms you discover are limited only by your imagination.
